

Haitong International names Hyde Chen as Head of Investment Strategy of Asset Management

Hong Kong, 22 November 2021 – Haitong International Securities Group Limited ("Haitong International" or "The Group"; Stock Code: 665.HK) today announces the appointment of Hyde Chen as Managing Director and Head of Investment Strategy of its asset management arm.

Chen will be responsible for leading the asset management investment research team. He will focus on integrating macro- and micro-economic perspectives into the decision-making process for investment managers, and providing analysis and asset allocation recommendations for the Haitong International buy-side platform. He will also synergize with the various business lines of Haitong International with a view to developing up-to-date investment strategies and customized investment solutions for clients, and further refine Haitong International's one-stop professional investment management service platform.

Hyde Chen said: "China continues to open up its financial market and foreign investors are increasing their allocation on Chinese assets. As a well-established international financial center, Hong Kong is expected to be increasingly competitive as a leading regional asset management hub. I am honored to join Haitong International and lead the investment strategy team, and I am looking forward to developing the investment research team into a resource sharing platform which is able to facilitate collaborations and communicate strategies with the Group's various businesses such as investment banking and private wealth management."

Dr. Shengzu Wang, Global Head of Asset Management, Haitong International, said: "The investment strategy team is one of the core teams of Haitong International Asset Management. With the addition of Chen and the continuous expansion of the team, we will continue to beef up the buy-side investment research service platform. With the research-driven investment and asset allocation framework, we are dedicated to building a unique asset management platform to provide full-cycle investment management services to Haitong International's individual, corporate and institutional clients."

Chen has over 10 years' experience in the financial and investment industry. Prior to joining Haitong International, he was most recently the Executive Director at UBS Global Wealth Management Chief Investment Office, responsible for formulating multi-asset investment strategies in mainland China and Hong Kong markets. Before that, he worked in the equity analyst teams at AllianceBernstein and CLSA respectively. Chen holds an MBA degree from Harvard Business School, and both Master's and Bachelor's degrees in Electrical Engineering from National Taiwan University, Taipei.
